MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1770.

HAMBURGH, December 18.

A COPY of a Letter from Conſtantinople, dated the 29th of laſt Month, is handed about here, adviſing that on the 4th, the People roſe with a Deſign to dethrone the Grand Signior; that the Mutineers approached the Seraglio in the Evening, but were received very warmly by the Bonſtangis, or Body-Guards, and that ſome Thouſands were killed and wounded on both Sides; that the Grand Signior eſcaped in the Night to Adrianople, where he remained with 10,000 of his beſt Troops, while another Corps of 15,000 was left at Conſtantinople, to ſecure the Public Tranquillity. This News, however, ſeems to require a double Confirmation.

LONDON,

Dec. 22. We hear that there is to be a total Change in the Government of America, and that ſhortly there will be a Viceroy ſent thither, who is to be empowered to preſide, ſimilar to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and that the Adminiſtration of Affairs will be new modelled in ſuch a Manner, as to put an End to the preſent alarming Diſputes between Great-Britain and the Colonies.

A private Letter from Berlin ſays, that a new Treaty of Alliance has been lately concluded between the Empreſs of Ruſſia and the King of Pruſſia, by which the latter engages to aſſiſt the former againſt the Turks, and the Confederates of Poland with an Army of 80,000 Men, which are now on their March to Warſaw.

Jan. 4. A certain great Man, whoſe Appearance on the political Stage, has been long wiſhed for, is preparing to exhibit a very ſpirited Scene on Thurſday next.

Advices from Conſtantinople declare, that the Grand Signior has ſent Orders to the King of Morocco and the other Princes of Barbary, to hold their Naval Force in readineſs, to oppoſe the Entrance of the Ruſſian Fleet into the Archipelago.

We are well informed that Lord Chatham intends to ſupport a new Character on an enſuing Occaſion.

It is now confidently aſſerted, that the celebrated Junius has ſet out on his Travels to foreign Parts.

Some very intereſting Papers are come from Ireland, which will ſhortly be laid before the Public.

The humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Die Martii, 9 Januarii, 1770.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the greateſt Concern we have underſtood, that the Diſtemper among the horned Cattle has lately broke out in this Kingdom. We deſire to expreſs our Gratitude for your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People, in the Steps which it has pleaſed your Majeſty to take, with the Advice of your Privy Council, to check the inſtant Danger of the Spreading of the Diſtemper, upon the firſt Notice of its Appearance; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will immediately enter into the moſt ſerious Conſideration of this very important Object, and will exert our utmoſt Endeavours in taking ſuch effectual Meaſures, as may ſecure us againſt ſo great a Calamity.

We return your Majeſty our Thanks for the repeated Aſſurances your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give us, of your fixed Purpoſes to preſerve the Peace, maintaining at the ſame Time, the Dignity of your Crown, and the Intereſts of your People. We have a dutiful Senſe of your Majeſty's provident Attention to prevent the Neceſſity of involving your Subjects in freſh Difficulties, after the great Burthens to which they ſo cheerfully ſubmitted, in order to bring the late War to a happy Concluſion; and we have great Satisfaction in finding, that the Aſſurances given to your Majeſty by the other great Powers of Europe, afford Reaſon to believe, that without Prejudice either to the Honour of your Crown, the Rights of your People, or the general Intereſts of Europe, it may ſtill be in your Majeſty's Power to continue to your Subjects the farther Enjoyment of the Bleſſings of Peace.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we will take into our moſt ſerious Conſideration the State of your Government in America. We beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Concern, that the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Endeavours to bring back your Subjects there to a due Senſe of lawful Authority, have not anſwered your Majeſty's Expectations. We ſhall be ready to give every Aſſiſtance in our Power, for rendering effectual theſe your Majeſty's gracious Intentions, and for diſcountenancing thoſe unwarrantable Meaſures practiſed in ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies, which appear calculated to deſtroy the Commercial Connection between them and the Mother Country.

We think it our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are thoroughly ſenſible, that the Welfare of your People has ever been the Object of your Wiſhes, and the Rule of all your Actions; and that we will endeavour to deſerve the favourable Opinion, which your Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs, of our being governed by the ſame Principles. That we have a perfect Reliance on your Majeſty's promiſed Support in ſuch Meaſures, as may ſerve to promote thoſe Ends. That it is peculiarly incumbent upon us at preſent, to avoid Heats and Animoſities among ourſelves, ſo we ſhall endeavour to cultivate that Harmony, which is ſo neceſſary to the Common Cauſe, and which alone can render our Deliberations reſpectable and effectual; being fully perſuaded, that ſuch a Conduct, on our Part, muſt greatly contribute to the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Country, and to eſtabliſh a due Senſe of the very diſtinguiſhed Advantages of our happy Conſtitution, as well as a firm Attachment to it; and muſt juſtify, both at Home and Abroad, your Majeſty's gracious Confidence in the Wiſdom of your Parliament, and in their Zeal for the true Intereſts of your People.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious Anſwer.

My Lords,

I THANK you for this affectionate and loyal Addreſs.

Your Reſolution to enter immediately into the Conſideration of ſuch Meaſures as may beſt ſecure us againſt the Spreading of the Diſtemper among the horned Cattle, affords me great Satisfaction.

I have ſtrong Reliance on your Determination to give me every Aſſiſtance in your Power to ſupport my Government in America.

Your Aſſurances of Duty and Loyalty towards me and your Reſolution to cultivate Harmony among yourſelves, give me very ſincere Pleaſure.

The humble Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons to the King.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great-Britain in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

We cannot but look upon it as a very ſerious Misfortune, that, notwithſtanding every Precaution which could be uſed for preventing the Communication of the infectious Diſorder among the horned Cattle from foreign Parts, that moſt alarming Diſtemper appears to have again broke out in ſome Parts of the Kingdom. At the ſame Time, we are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Vigilance for the Security of your People, in having given the earlieſt Directions for every Meaſure to be purſued, that might be moſt likely to give an immediate Check to the firſt Spreading of the Infection; and we will not fail to take this moſt important Matter into our immediate Conſideration; and to make ſuch Proviſions as ſhall appear beſt calculated to carry into effectual and complete Execution your Majeſty's ſalutary Intentions; and thereby, as far as by human Means can be accompliſhed, to guard againſt the Danger of ſo great a Calamity becoming general.

Your faithful Commons have too juſt a Senſe of the Bleſſings of Peace, and feel with your Majeſty, too tender a Concern for the Eaſe of their Fellow Subjects, not to rejoice at the Proſpect which the Aſſurances given by the other great Powers of Europe afford to your Majeſty, that the preſent Diſturbances will not extend to any Part where the Security, Honour, or Intereſt of the Nation may make it neceſſary for your Majeſty to become a Party. We have the fulleſt Confidence that your Majeſty will never be unmindful of thoſe important Objects; and we obſerve, with great Satisfaction, your Majeſty's wiſe Attention to the general Intereſts of Europe, in your Determination not to acknowledge any Claims of any of the other Powers of Europe, contrary to the Limitations of the late Treaties of Peace.

We ſincerely lament, that your Majeſty's Endeavours to bring back your Subjects in America to a juſt Senſe of their Duty, have hitherto proved ſo little ſucceſsful. The State of your Majeſty's Government there, does undoubtedly well deſerve the ſerious Attention of Parliament; and no Endeavours ſhall be wanting on our Part, to make effectual Proviſions againſt the unwarrantable Meaſures carried on in ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies, which are ſo irreconcileable to every Principle of Commercial Subſerviency to the Intereſt of the Mother Country that ought to prevail in Colonies, and which, by attempting to ſubject the higheſt legal Authority to the Controul of Individuals, tend to ſubvert the Foundation of all Government.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we will with the utmoſt Cheerfulneſs and Diſpatch, grant the neceſſary Supplies for the Service of the current Year.

We acknowledge with the warmeſt Gratitude, that the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms has been the conſtant Object of your Majeſty's Wiſhes, and the unvaried Rule of your Actions. Permit us, Sir, at the ſame Time, to offer to your Majeſty our moſt dutiful Thanks, for the favourable Opinion which your Majeſty is pleaſed to entertain of the Conduct of your Parliament; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ſteadily perſevere in ſuch Principles as are moſt agreeable to the true Spirit of this free Conſtitution, and invariably purſue ſuch Meaſures as are moſt conducive to the real Happineſs of the People.

Earneſtly deſirous of juſtifying to all the World your Majeſty's gracious Declaration of your Confidence in us, we will make it our Study to avoid all Heats and Animoſities, and to cultivate that Harmony amongſt ourſelves, which, we are truly ſenſible, is at this Time peculiary neceſſary, to give Weight to our Deliberations, to eſtabliſh the Proſperity, and to maintain in its true Luſtre the Reputation of this Country.

And while we on our Part are faithfully executing the Truſt repoſed in us, by endeavouring to the utmoſt of our Power to promote theſe good Ends, we truſt that all who live under this happy Conſtitution will be convinced how indiſpenſably it is their Duty to pay that Obedience to the Laws, and juſt Reverence to lawful Authority, by which alone their own Rights can be preſerved, and the diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings which they enjoy above all other Nations, be rendered ſecure and permanent.

BOSTON, February 26.

Laſt Thurſday Morning, about Ten o'Clock, ſome Boys and Children ſet up a large Wooden Head, with a Board faced with Paper, on which was painted the Figures of Four of the Importers, who had entered into, and violated the Merchants Agreement, in the Middle of the Street before Theophilus Lillie's Door, who was one of them. Soon after it was ſet up, Ebenezer Richardſon the famous Informer, came by, and endeavoured to perſuade a Countryman to overturn it with his Waggon, which he refuſing, he applied to a Charcoal-Man to drive his Cart againſt it, but he ſaid he had no Buſineſs with it, and would not concern himſelf about it. Richardſon (as the Boys ſay) preſſed him to it, ſaying he was a Magiſtrate in the Town, and would bear him out in it. The Man ſtill denying to meddle therewith, Richardſon laid hold on the Horſe and Oxen, and endeavoured to ſhove them upon the Pole, which ſupported the Pageantry; the Cart however paſſed without diſturbing it. Richardſon then left the Place, and came towards his own Houſe, at about 50 or 60 Paces diſtant, and meeting with Meſſieurs Edward Proctor, Thomas Knox, and Captains Riordon and Skilling, faced them in a very impudent Manner, and cried out, Perjury! Perjury! often repeating it as he paſſed them. The Gentlemen halted in the Street, 'til getting within his Door, he turned about, and again repeated the Inſult. Mr. Proctor, with the other Gentlemen, ſtepped towards the Door, and aſked him, what he meant by Perjury? He ſaid, I don't mean you Mr. Proctor, but looking ſpitefully on Mr. Knox, ſaid, d—mn you, Perjury, Villains! Mr. Knox retorted the Abuſe; on which Richardſon ſaid, by the eternal G—d, I will make it too hot for ſome of you before Night: The Boys on hearing the Words, began to gather round, and call him Informer; on which, both he and his Wife, or Woman, went out, and talked to them in a very provoking Manner, flouriſhing their Arms, and advancing out into the Street with high Threatenings; on which the Children would retreat, and on their return advance, with Squeeling and Noiſe they uſually make on ſuch Occaſions. This Farce ſoon made a notable Diverſion in favour of Mr. Lillie, Mr. Richardſon and Lady having drawn the whole Attention on themſelves. The Boys at length began to throw light Rubbiſh of one Kind or other, as if to drive them into the Houſe, this the Woman often returned, 'til the Matter became more Earneſt. They then retreated into the Houſe, and ſpeedily Richardſon opened the Door, and ſnapped a Gun preſented to the People indiſcriminately. This raiſed them ſo much, that they then pelted the Houſe, and broke ſome of the Windows.——In a few Minutes after this, Richardſon fired out of the Windows among the People, and wounded Mr. Sammy Gore, Son of Capt. John Gore, through both Thighs, and Two Fingers of his Right Hand, beſides which, drove (one would think) a moderate Charge into the Breaſt and Abdomen of Chriſtopher Snider, a Boy about 11 Years of Age, who lived with Madam Apthorp. The Child fell, but was taken up and carried into a neighbouring Houſe, where all the Surgeons within call were aſſembled, and ſpeedily determined the Wounds mortal, as they indeed proved about Nine o'Clock that Evening. The People on hearing the Report of the Gun, ſeeing the wounded, and another as they thought killed, got into the new Brick-Meeting, and rang the Bell, on which they ſoon had Company enough to beſet the Houſe Front and Rear; by the latter of which they entered, and notwithſtanding the Menaces of Richardſon, and his faithful Aider and Abetter George Wilmot, ſeized on both, and wrenched a Gun from the latter, heavily charged with Powder, and crammed with 179 Gooſe and Buck Shot.

It is ſaid that ſome Perſons went into Richardſon before he fired, and diſſuaded him from it, but the Event ſhewed he was not to be diverted from his Deſign.——The Criminals were firſt carried before Mr. Juſtice Ruddock, who was pleaſed to ſend them to Faneuil-Hall, under a ſufficient Guard, where Three other Magiſtrates, Richard Dana, Edmund Quincy, and Samuel Pemberton, Eſquires, with Mr. Ruddock, took their Examination before at leaſt 1000 People, and committed them. The Numberleſs Affronts and Abuſes both theſe Perſons had heaped on the Inhabitants, exaſperated them to ſuch a Pitch, that had not Gentlemen of Influence interpoſed, they never would have reached the Priſon; but to the Satisfaction of every good Man, they are now in ſafe Cuſtody, where we leave them to obſerve, that ſoon after the Child's deceaſe, his Body was opened by Dr. Warren and others, and in it were found Eleven Shot or Slugs, about the Bigneſs of large Peaſe, one of which pierced his Breaſt about an Inch and a half above the Midriff, and paſſing clear through the Right Lobe of the Lungs, lodged in his Back. This, Three of the Surgeons depoſed before the Jury of Inqueſt, was the Cauſe of his Death; on which they brought in their Verdict wilful Murder by ſaid Richardſon. The Right Hand of the Boy was cruelly torn, whence it ſeems to have been acroſs his Breaſt, and, to have deadened the force of the Shot, which might otherwiſe have pierced the Stomach.

Doctor Warren likewiſe cut Slugs out of young Mr. Gore's Thighs, but pronounced him in no Danger of Death, though in all Probability he will loſe the Uſe of the right Fore-Finger, by the wound received there; much important to a Youth of his Dexterity in drawing and painting.

The worthy Mr. M'Dougall of New-York, will be juſtly celebrated by Poſterity, as the Firſt who has ſuffered actual Impriſonment for aſſerting the Cauſe of American Liberty. A very diſtinguiſhed Patriot in this Town was long before made the Object of the Fury of the curſed Cabal: And by the good Providence of God eſcaped an Aſſaſſination evidently intended in September laſt, though not without the Loſs of Blood: And the barbarous Treatment this Gentleman then met with, though not yet revenged, is not forgot. Others have ſuffered in their Reputation——others in their Eſtates; having endured the Fiery Trial of modern Courts of Admiralty, where they have been harraſſed and diſtreſſed for no other apparent Reaſon but their being ſteady and able Advocates for the Cauſe. ——This innocent Lad is the Firſt, whoſe Life has been a Victim to the Cruelty and Rage of Oppreſſors! Young as he was, he died in his Country's Cauſe, by the Hand of an execrable Villain, directed by others, who could not bear to ſee the Enemies of America made the ridicule of Boys. The untimely Death of this amiable Youth will be a ſtanding Monument to Futurity, that the Time has been when Innocence itſelf was not ſafe! The Blood of young Allen may be covered in Britain: But a thorough Inquiſition will be made in America for that of young Snider, which crieth for Vengeance like the Blood of righteous Abel. And ſurely, if Juſtice has not been driven from its Seat, ſpeedy Vengeance awaits his Murderers and their Accomplices, however ſecure they may think themſelves at preſent: For who ſheddeth, or procureth the ſhedding Man's Blood, by Man ſhall his Blood be ſhed.

March 1. Notice having been given in Monday's Paper, that the Lad who was killed on Thurſday laſt, was to be buried in the Afternoon; and that it was hoped none would be in the Proceſſion but the Friends of Liberty——A great Multitude of People aſſembled in the Houſes and Streets to ſee the Funeral Proceſſion——It began about 5 o'Clock from the Liberty-Tree, (the Dwelling-Houſe of the Parents of the deceaſed being but at a little Diſtance from thence) the Boys from the ſeveral Schools, ſuppoſed to be between 4 and 500, preceded the Corps in Couples;——after the ſorrowful Relatives and particular Friends of the Youth, followed many of the principal Gentlemen, and a great Number of other reſpectable Inhabitants of this Town, by Computation exceeding 1300; 30 Chariots, Chaiſes, &c. cloſed the Proceſſion: Throughout the whole there appeared the greateſt Solemnity and good Order, and by as numerous a Train as was ever known here.

March 8. One Day laſt Week a Soldier who has long paſſed for the Bully of the 29th Regiment, bought Two Baſkets of Charcoal from a Stoughton Man, and in Payment offered him a Piſtareen in Lieu of a Shilling Sterling, which the Man refuſed, and inſiſted on his Money or the Return of the Coal. The Soldier denied to do either, on which the Charcoal-Man ſaid he would take it out of his Hide, rather than trouble himſelf much about it: To which the Bully very readily agreed, and was laid ſprawling at every Paſs, 'til quite tired of the Diverſion, he profeſſed his Satisfaction, took his Fellow Combatant to an Ale-Houſe, and amicably ſettled the Diſpute.

Not quite ſo fortunate were Two of theſe Don Quixote Adventurers, who fell upon a young Man walking quietly near the lower End of King-Street, and ſtopping him in his Way, inſulted him with very opprobrious Language, on which, after a very ſhort Parley, he laid both ſprawling, and went about his Buſineſs. Two or Three more ſuch Rencounters have happened lately.——'Tis ſaid many of the 29th Regiment, have armed themſelves with Bludgeons of about 2 Feet long, a round Handle, and the Body of the Club Three Square. With ſuch Weapons as theſe, Swords, and Cutlaſſes, on Friday laſt, about 11 o'Clock, they made a formal Attack on the Rope-Walk of Mr. John Gray; one of them appearing firſt, and complaining that ſome of their People had affronted him, and declared he would have Satisfaction. The Workmen not much attending to him, he grew very abuſive, and challenged any one in the Rope-Walk to turn out and fight him; one of the Hands ſtepped out to him, very ſpeedily tript up his Heels and took his Sword from him. He then went from them, and ſoon returned with 8 or 9 more, armed as aforeſaid, aſking very haughtily, why he had been uſed in that Manner? The Anſwers probably not pleaſing the Gentlemen Soldiers, (as it ſeems they affect to ſtile themſelves) they fell upon the Rope-Makers, who being accidentally well provided for their Reception, made it neceſſary for the whole Body to march in Queſt of Auxiliaries. Recruited to the Number of 30 or 40, they again viſited the Rope-Walks, and challenged any or all of the Workmen to come out and fight them. This Offer was readily embraced, and notwithſtanding the Soldiers were Three to One, prepared on purpoſe, they were beat off, many of them much bruiſed, and 2 or 3 of the Workmen ſlightly wounded.

Mr. Juſtice Hill came up as this laſt riotous Multitude advanced, told them he was in Commiſſion of the Peace, and commanded them to go to their Barracks. In this Exerciſe of his Duty he was ſtruck at by one of them with a Club, which, had it reached him, might have been fatal; and ſo daring was this Fellow, that in the Magiſtrate's Preſence, he knocked down a Labourer, dragged him about, and beat, and abuſed him much in deſpite of the Juſtice's Interpoſition. No leſs audacious was the Behaviour of a tall Negro Drummer, to whom Juſtice Hill particularly ſpoke, ordering him home, but he intent on wounding, or probably killing the Inhabitants, headed the Party Sword in Hand, but had his Sword beat from his Hold, which however being chained to his Body he carried with him. He is ſaid to be much wounded.

Between 5 and 6 the ſame Evening, a large Body of them collected again, and were in full march for the Field of Battle; when Mr. John Gray, Owner of the Walks, met them and diverted their Intention for that Evening. But on Saturday, about Half after 4, Three ſtout Grenadiers, armed with Bludgeons as above deſcribed, came into the Bottom of the Walks, and finding Three young Men ſpinning together unarmed, accoſted them in theſe moſt impudent Words, "You d——n'd Dogs, don't you deſerve to be killed? The Lads not anſwering, Mr. James Young came up and ſpoke boldly, on which a Grenadier aimed a Blow at his Head, but Mr. Young fended it off with his Arms; he then turned from Young and made a Paſs at Mr. Archibald M'Neil, jun. which he avoided, otherwiſe believes it might have killed him. During this Bluſter, one of Mr. W. Caleſ's Journeymen, went into the Tan Houſe, got Two Bats, and giving one to his Comrade, ſoon cleared the Walks of the Soldiers.

NEWPORT, March 5.

We hear the L——t Governor of Boſton has received a Letter from Governor Bernard, informing him that all the Revenue Acts will certainly be repealed very ſoon, except the Molaſſes Act, which would not ſurvive long after the reſt:——In Conſequence of which, 'tis ſaid, the Importers in Boſton began to be much chagrined, and have offered to come into the Non-importation Agreement, and to ſign any Articles the Non-importers ſhould think proper to propoſe, but their Offers were treated with Contempt.

ANNAPOLIS, March 29.

By Letters from London we have Advice of the Death of Mr. Samuel Buchanan, Son of Mr. John Buchanan, of London, Merchant: This young Gentleman left this Province laſt Summer, after a Reſidence of Two Years, during which Time he tranſacted a great deal of Buſineſs, and gained the Friendſhip and Eſteem of all Ranks of People, ſo that his Death is generally lamented.

Poetical Letter from a Gentleman in Jamaica, to his Friend in England.

"WHILE you, my Friend, in perfect Eaſe
Ride, walk, or ramble where you pleaſe
Saunter to Coffee-Houſe or Play,
And careleſs frolic through the Day;
Poor Will, on t'other Side the Main,
Is doom'd to each Degree of Pain;
Strange to Delight, or Change of Scene,
Victim of Dulneſs, and the Spleen.
" Here Phœbus darts his fierceſt Rays,
And all Creation ſeems to blaze;
Fainting, we bear the ſultry Heat,
And wiſh in Vain for cool Retreat;
Nor cool Retreat, nor pleaſing Shade,
Afford their much deſir'd Aid;
His Beams reſiſtleſs force their Way,
And Nature Sickens with Decay.
" When Sol at length retires to Reſt,
And veils his Glories in the Weſt;
When Ev'ning comes, all mild and fair,
And Breezes fan the ſultry Air,
Affliction ſtill retains her Pow'r,
And Plagues attend each paſſing Hour:
A buzzing Inſect hovers round,
And darts full many a piercing Wound;
Keeps his fell Station near the Bed,
And Sleep denies to weary Head.
" Deſpair here lifts her baleful Hand,
To ſpread Diſorders o'er the Land;
While meagre Death near couching lies,
To ſnatch the wretched deſtin'd Prize:
Theſe, and a Thouſand Evils more,
Alas! Are here reſerv'd in Store,
To blaſt our Joys, and render Life,
One tragic Scene of Pain and Strife.
" In this dull Iſle no blooming Fair,
With ſweet Attraction ſooths our Care;
No ſoft Refinements gild their Charms,
No Elegance of Speech alarms,
Strangers to each perſuaſive Art,
To gain Admiſſion to the Heart.
" Ye Gods! What Tranſports once I knew,
How ſwift the fleeting Moments flew;
No anxious Pangs diſturb'd my Reſt,
And all was Peace within my Breaſt;
Blythſome I paſs'd each jocund Day,
While varied Pleaſures ſtrew'd my Way.
" When with my Betſey oft I ſtray'd,
And heard and ſaw the lovely Maid;
Heard her with Eloquence divine,
Declare her Heart was only mine;
While Truth ſat beaming in her Eye,
And Virtue ſtood all radient by;
Then ye bleſt Pow'rs!——Then did I prove,
The nameleſs Joys that wait on Love.
" Sometimes the Theatre I choſe,
There felt imaginary Woes;
Heard Powell pleading to the Heart,
Inſpir'd by Nature, free from Art:
With wond'rous Pow'r the Mind he caught,
And Fiction realiz'd to Thought;
Each tender Fair enamour'd hung,
On the ſoft Muſic of his Tongue:
Form'd to delight, he gain'd Applauſe,
And reign'd by ſtrict dramatic Laws.
" Ah me! Thoſe tranquil Scenes are o'er,
Far baniſh'd from my natal Shore,
I droop and pine with ſullen Care,
A Prey to Sorrow and Deſpair.
Oh! let your Pity ſtill attend,
Your once——once happy, cheerful Friend;
Let me ſtill live within your Mind,
So ſhall my Soul ſome Comfort find,
And think, when yielding up my Breath,
Friendſhip allays the Pangs of Death."
